

Assessing the Corporation Risks and Issues through Integrated Governance Approach (CASE APPLICATION)

Directors' strict compliance with the securities dealing restrictions within the Listing Rules is of fundamental importance to the integrity and confidence in the governance of listed issuers in Hong Kong.

- Discuss the recent regulatory cases of the corporate risks and issues that board and management encountered
- Examine common types of corporate risks that board and management faced
- Demonstrate our insights on different levels of risk management anticipates
- Present recommendations on evaluating the signs through integrated governance approach