HKIoD League of Leaders for Corporate Governance and ESG Reporting

Latest corporate governance and ESG requirements call for directors to ask themselves relevant questions about their performance enhancement regularly and be alert to specific issues arising from changes of business and operational environment. This course applies a case-study approach to explore meaningful, cost-efficient, team-building and engaging projects to optimize the benefits of corporate government enhancement and ESG initiatives. If companies have to do it in any event, they might well do it in an efficient, compliant and laudable way.
