

Introduction of Facilitator 導師簡介

Ms Eve Chan

Eve Chan is a partner of YC Solicitors, a Hong Kong law firm specialising in corporate finance practice. Eve advises clients on corporate finance transactions, including public and private mergers and acquisitions, restructuring, takeovers, initial public offerings, H share listings. She has advised on multiple high-profile public takeovers and global offerings in Hong Kong. Eve has been advising various listed companies, including A+H dual listed companies and SOEs, on Hong Kong Listing Rules, general compliance matters, and investigations by the regulatory bodies.

Eve has more than 10 years of experience advising clients in a broad spectrum of industry sectors, including healthcare, real estate, aviation, media, retail, mining and financial services. Prior to joining YC Solicitors, she was trained and working at leading international law firms throughout her legal career.

Mr Nic Yau

Nic is a partner of YC Solicitors, a Hong Kong law firm specialising in corporate finance practice. Nic advises clients on corporate finance transactions, including mergers and acquisitions, initial public offerings, formation of joint ventures, corporate restructuring, private equity transactions and other commercial transactions under the governance of the Listing Rules and the Takeovers and Share Repurchase Codes.

Nic is experienced in advising Hong Kong listed companies. Nic also advises a number of SMEs in Hong Kong on their business development matters and fund-raising activities. Prior to his legal career, he was an insurance claims specialist in a multinational insurance group.